SUPERIOR UNIVERSITY
OKARA CAMPUS

LECTURE 01 | FUNCTIONAL ENGLISH

INTRODUCTION TO FUNCTIONAL ENGLISH

Language • Communication • Personal Effectiveness

3 Credit Hours | 3 Hours per Week | Preferred Semester: 1

Definitions | Objectives | Course Roadmap | Case Studies

Official Course Profile: Functional English

COURSE INFORMATION

COURSE

Functional English
Course type: Language Skills

ACADEMIC DETAILS

3 credit hours
3 hours per week | Preferred semester: 1

COURSE CONTEXT

Programs: All
Prerequisites: None
Follow-up course: Expository Writing

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Strengthens grammar, vocabulary and practical communication through real-life tasks, while linking language learning with values-based personal growth.

CORE APPROACH

Clear and confident communication; character-centred learning; practical use of language in academic, social and professional contexts.

Course Learning Outcomes and Teaching Approach

CLOS + DELIVERY

CLO 1 | Apply core grammar

Students apply core grammar skills in real-life contexts through practice, the Seven Habits, and the broader Character Mastery theme.

CLO 2 | Analyse language choices

Students analyse and differentiate language, tone and structure in projects, applying habits and values of character-centred communication.

TEACHING AND LEARNING METHODS

- Interactive lecture
- Discussion
- Presentation
- Role-play
- Workshop
- Reading + reflection

Week-by-Week Course Outline: Weeks 1–3

COURSE OUTLINE

WEEK 1 | ICE-BREAKING

- Introductions and warm-up activities
- Course introduction, class rules and assessment plan
- Video: Piper
- Reading: comfort-zone and productivity text
- Activity: classroom vision and syllabus breakdown
- Seven Habits overview; active listening discussion

WEEK 2 | HABIT 1 + GRAMMAR

- Habit 1: Be Proactive
- Parts of speech: noun, verb, adjective and pronoun
- Video-based listening task
- Read and discuss key Habit 1 concepts
- Vocabulary sheet and sentence practice

WEEK 3 | REFLECTION 1

- Reading and reflection on Habit 1
- Written and speaking reflection
- Present findings from previous writing
- Homework: five-step personal proactivity plan
- SMART goals and key ideas from a relevant video

Preparation: purchase/read the prescribed Seven Habits text and bring notes for reflection.

Week-by-Week Course Outline: Weeks 4–5

COURSE OUTLINE

WEEK 4 | HABIT 2 + CONJUNCTIONS

- Habit 2: Begin with the End in Mind
- English topic: conjunctions
- Conjunctive Detective game
- Video-based listening and question response
- Reading discussion and vocabulary-in-sentences
- Homework: key Habit 2 terms and personal mission statement

WEEK 5 | REFLECTION 2 + ASSESSMENT 1

- Reading and reflection on Habit 2
- Written and speaking reflection
- Assessment 1: assignment, quiz or interactive activity
- May cover topics taught through Week 5
- Goal-mapping task: work backwards from becoming a fluent English speaker

Key learning: connect language choices with goals, planning and personal mission.

Week-by-Week Course Outline: Weeks 6–8

COURSE OUTLINE + MIDTERM

WEEK 6 | PRESENTATION + HABIT 3

- Semi-formal presentation skills
- Habit 3: Put First Things First
- Public-speaking activity: Semi-formal Speaker Challenge
- Video, reading and vocabulary activities
- Time-management concepts: urgent vs important, Quadrant II, weekly planning

WEEK 7 | REFLECTION 3

- Reflection on Habit 3
- Reading, writing and speaking tasks
- Present previous writing findings
- Homework: five-step plan to implement Quadrant II principles

WEEK 8 | MIDTERM PROJECT: SEMI-FORMAL PRESENTATION / VLOG | 30%

Week-by-Week Course Outline: Weeks 9–12

COURSE OUTLINE

WEEK 9 | HABIT 4

- Habit 4: Think Win-Win
- English topic: prepositions
- Move with Preposition / Pictionary / fill-in-the-blanks
- Reading and vocabulary practice
- Human-interaction paradigms and Win-Win dimensions

WEEK 10 | REFLECTION 4

- Habit 5: Seek First to Understand, Then to Be Understood
- Book reading and reflection
- Written and speaking reflection
- Discuss the main concepts and present findings

WEEKS 11–12 | HABIT 5

- Week 11: use of prepositions + tense correction
- Identify and correct verb tense errors
- Habit 5: empathic communication and listening
- Week 12: continued reading and reflection
- Homework: watch Inside Out (2015) for discussion

Week-by-Week Course Outline: Weeks 13–15

COURSE OUTLINE

WEEK 13 | HABIT 6

- Habit 6: Synergize
- English topic: active and passive voice
- Identify voice in quotations
- Reading, video and vocabulary tasks
- Creative cooperation and valuing differences

WEEK 14 | HABIT 7

- Habit 7: Sharpen the Saw
- Punctuation: period, comma, apostrophe and quotation marks
- Rewrite a passage with correct punctuation
- Reflection on the four dimensions of renewal

WEEK 15 | REFLECTION 6 & 7

- Reflection on Habits 6 and 7
- Reading, written and speaking reflections
- Poster/comic task illustrating synergy
- Include at least four sentences and label active/passive voice

Week-by-Week Course Outline: Weeks 16–17

FINAL ASSESSMENTS

WEEK 16 | FINAL TERM PROJECT — 20%

Teacher may assign one of the following:

1. Voiceover of a movie/drama clip
2. Role-play enactment of a movie/drama clip
3. Stand-up comedy talk sharing three funny anecdotes from the university journey

WEEK 17 | FINAL WRITTEN EXAM — 40%

Written examination based on questions with real-life contexts.

Focus: apply grammar and language concepts to practical situations and demonstrate course learning outcomes.

Plan early: the project rewards preparation, creativity, clear language and audience awareness.

How a Typical Functional English Session Works

TEACHING-LEARNING DESIGN

The course combines language learning with the Seven Habits through repeated practice and reflection.

LANGUAGE CONTENT

Grammar or communication skill

→

VIDEO SECTION

Listen, observe and answer questions

→

READING SECTION

Explore Habit concepts and text

→

VOCABULARY

Learn words and use them in sentences

→

REFLECTION

Write, speak, discuss and apply

CLO 1

Grammar and language skills applied in context.

CLO 2

Analyse language, tone and structure; reflect on character-centred communication.

Official Assessment Plan: 100%

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

ASSESSMENT 1	Assignment / quiz / interactive activity	Week 4–6 range; official outline states 4th–6th week	10%
MIDTERM PROJECT	Semi-formal presentation / vlog	Week 8	30%
FINAL TERM PROJECT	Voiceover / role-play / stand-up comedy talk	Week 16	20%
FINAL WRITTEN EXAM	Real-life-context written questions	Week 17	40%

Total = 100% | Assessment details should be confirmed against the instructor's current instructions.

Understanding the Semester System

ACADEMIC EXPECTATIONS

WHAT THE SEMESTER SYSTEM MEANS

A defined teaching period with scheduled classes, learning activities, deadlines and assessments.

THIS COURSE AT A GLANCE

17-week plan in the provided outline; 3 credit hours; 3 hours per week; preferred semester 1.

YOUR LEARNING CYCLE

ATTEND → LEARN → PRACTISE → REFLECT → ASSESS → IMPROVE

Semester success

Attend consistently, bring the prescribed book/notes, complete weekly homework, participate, and track feedback and deadlines.

LANGUAGE IS A TOOL.
COMMUNICATION IS A SKILL.
IMPROVEMENT IS A HABIT.

Thank you for your participation.

Superior University | Okara Campus